12 October 2010

Dear Professor Ford,

On behalf of the executive committee and the members of the Corporate Law Teachers Association, it is my pleasure to convey to you our best wishes and warm regards on the milestone of your 90th birthday. As the inaugural life member of the CLTA, we are particularly honoured by your affiliation. Regardless of whether they are members of the CLTA or not, academics and teachers in our region, in the areas of corporate and commercial law and equity are indebted to you for your contribution in enhancing the scholarship of these areas of teaching and research.

Warm regards,

Ellie Chapple,
President, CLTA

Dear Professor Chapple,

I write to thank you, your executive committee and your members for the birthday greetings conveyed in your very warm letter.

I very much appreciate my association with CLTA and I hope that the Association will continue to prosper.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Howard Steel
